

To Whom It May Concern:

It is with great pride that I write this recommendation for Steve Schrack as he pursues a secondary social studies teaching position. I have had the pleasure of having Mr. Schrack as a student at Albright College in EDU 612 School Law in the spring of 2024 and EDU 707 Secondary Professional Semester in the fall of 2024. During these classes I had many opportunities to learn more about Mr. Schrack's work and passion for teaching.

As a student, Mr. Schrack was always engaged and focused on the content and learning that was taking place in each of these classes. He did a great job navigating challenging legal questions and topics in School Law. Mr. Schrack also brought real world experience to the discussion forums regarding many of the legal topics in this course. He was also engaged in discussions and conversations around the instructional practices during his student teaching placements while enrolled in the Professional Seminar class. He was always a positive force in this class sharing insights and suggestions to his colleagues.

Mr. Schrack's extensive background in human resources with real-world experiences will allow him to help his students connect the content in his classes to how these concepts will impact their lives into the future. Mr. Schrack will also bring a level of maturity and consistency that often takes younger teachers years to develop.

Ms. Schrack's resume highlights his background in schools and experiences outside of the educational system. All these experiences give him special skills to work with social studies students in a school setting. As a former school administrator, I would strongly encourage you to interview Mr. Schrack. I believe you will find him to be a passionate educator who will be a strong leader and advocate for students in your schools. Please feel free to reach out to me if you have any questions about Mr. Schrack.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Randall A. Grove'.

Randall A. Grove, D. Ed.
Assistant Professor
Education Department
Albright College
Email: rgrove@albright.edu
Cell Phone: 717-821-7559